Getting Started with Moodle

All courses and enrollments have been entered into Moodle, so instructors can log in and get started on their courses right away.

1. Go to moodle.swarthmore.edu
 2. Click on the "Log in" button and log in with your Swarthmore username and password
 3. If you have courses available, they will be shown in the middle of the screen. Click on a course to enter it.
 4. Inside a course, click the gear icon in the top right of the page and then select "Turn Editing On" to begin adding content.
 5. See below for more Moodle resources.
