G Suite Reliability, Backup, and Security

Reliability
Google services go down very rarely. Google guarantees that services will be available at least 99.9% of the time. You can also check on the status of various G Suite applications on their App Status Page: http://www.google.com/appsstatus

Backup
Google stores your data on multiple servers in different locations to prevent data loss.